

BETH TERRY

Beth Terry is the mother of four outstanding humans, Director of Mini Musicians, and member of the music trio Brigid. When she isn't teaching music at her private studio, or performing with her husband Chris Terry, Beth is volunteering her time directing TJHS musicals, taking dance classes at CDA, or writing music.

Originally from Newfoundland, Beth moved to Nova Scotia 20 years ago, and found a new home in Truro in 2005. Performing since age 5, Beth has a life long passion for the Arts, and has been working on stage, with actors, musicians, and young children in the field of music and theatre.
